

Foundation for Unity of Religions and Enlightened Citizenship conducts an annual essay contest for school children of classes IX and XI under its PROJECT EYE-C. Many students from across the country and some from outside the country have been participating in the contest. Essays selected for originality of ideas and expressions are compiled into a readable and attractive volume. This silent but urgent voice of the future is a must-read for all those who wish to leave a healthy and happy legacy for their children. The first book in the DIALOGUE series was The Right, The Wrong and The Dividing Line. EYE-C 2006 resulted in two volumes: Media Plays and Earth and I. EYE-C 2007 has brought with it two more volumes titled Ten Ways to Change the World and The Change Agent '07.

Foundation for Unity of Religions and Enlightened Citizenship (FUREC) is an organization that seeks to harness spiritual energy for the development of a better world. Currently FUREC is involved in four projects:

PROJECT SUDEN: where Education for Sustainable Development is imparted through training in Non violence and value oriented programmes.

PROJECT EYE-C where a nation wide essay contest is held on topics that related to value oriented life and living. PROJECT EYA-C has also been added which conducts art contests on related topics.

PROJECT INTERFAITH: where syncretic traditions are fostered and interfaith meetings, programmes and events organized.

PROJECT DESH: where FUREC works at the rural level for development of education, skill and healthcare.
